

Dr. Seuss Family Night

Held At Cumberland Elementary

A celebration for Dr. Seuss' Birthday was held at Cumberland Elementary School on Friday March 18th. The event was sponsored by the CES 21st CCLC and FRYSC. Various CES staff members also helped out with the event along with community partners Club 180, 4-H, and Sara Stone from the Public Library. The event featured various math, reading, and nutrition games for both students and their families. Angie and Terry Burkeen from Club 180 read "Yertle the Turtle" and students and family members were able to make their own crowns. Sara Stone from the Public Library made Blue Goo with students and family members. Pizza, drinks, and desserts were provided for all by the CES FRYSC, 21st CCLC and CES Staff. Various booths were set up including; pictures with the Cat in the Hat and Thing 1 and Thing 2, Photo Frame Making, Math Games, Reading Games, Nutrition Games, Temporary Tattoos and Pin the Bow on the Cat. At the end of the evening there was a Crazy Hat Show. Students were asked to create their own Dr. Seuss themed Crazy Hats. The winners were chosen by applause of all in attendance. It was a very successful event!
