

After reading and studying the novel Great Expectations, Melissa Quillen, Lonna Bledsoe, Wes Bailey and Earnestine Sergent took their classes to the Barter Theater in Abingdon, Va to see a performance adaptation of the classic story. The students thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity for a day of educational enhancement outside the classroom. Experiencing the world is often times a better teacher than simply being told.

