

Chelsey Caldwell and Breanna Epperson recently received leadership awards during the Harlan County High School awards program. Caldwell and Epperson both completed the Leadership Harlan County United academy and numerous other activities. They were instrumental in all four years of high school in community and future problem solving events.

