

Congratulations to Harlan County High School on winning second place in the Section 13 of the 2020 competition JV Challenge of the Kentucky Governor's Cup Academic competitions.

Final standings were Hazard High School, 50; Harlan County High School 42.5; Letcher County Central High School, 33; Harlan High School, 26; and Perry Central High School, 22.5.

Hazard took first place in the Quick Recall competition, following by Harlan County in second, Harlan High in third, Letcher Central in fourth and Perry Central in fifth.

Individual competitions results include:

Mathematics: Krisha Sajnani, Harlan High, first; Max Johnson, Hazard, second; Kaleb Trent, Perry Central, third; Josh Pinkley, Harlan County, fourth; Ariana Bailey, Letcher Central fifth; and Dalton Neff, Harlan County sixth.

Science: Chris Taylor, Harlan, first; Lucas Gibson, Perry Central, second; Connor Engle, Hazard, third, Ariana Bailey and Jonah Sturgill, Letcher Central, tie for fourth; and Landan McCreary, Harlan County, sixth.

Social Studies: Jonathan Counts, Hazard, first; William Sturgill, Letcher Central, second; Landan McCrary, third; Caden Couch, Hazard, fourth; Ariana McMurl, Letcher Central, fifth; and Dalton Neff, Harlan County, sixth.

Language Arts: Chloe Shelton, Harlan County, and Chesney Boothe, Hazard, tie for first; Jaylee Collier, Letcher Central, third; Michael Jones, Harlan County, and Kaleb Trent, Perry Central, tie for fourth; and Alyssa Adams, Letcher Central, sixth.

Arts and Humanities: Lucas Gibson, Perry Central, first; Chesney Boothe, Hazard, second; Chloe Shelton, Harlan County, third; Ariana McMurl, Letcher Central, fourth; Matthew Davis, Harlan County, fifth; and Chris Taylor, Harlan High, sixth.

Composition: Anna Day, Harlan County, first; Shelby Turner, Letcher Central, second; Haylee Couch, Harlan High, third; Grace Adams, Hazard, fourth; Destiny Feltner, Perry Central, fifth; and Alyssa Adams, Letcher Central, sixth.

Harlan County is coached by Mrs. Carla Dye and Mrs. Virginia Rice.